

How to Beat Your Boss: The Workplace Survival Guide, 2008, Terrence James McHugh, 0980520703, 9780980520705, Maxads, 2008

At last - a book for everybody who has a boss! Written by an expert workplace lawyer, HOW TO BEAT YOUR BOSS will help you understand where you really stand as an employee, and answer questions such as: How do I deal with a work crisis? Should I resign? Can my boss really treat me like that? Should I sue? * Learn insider's secrets, keeping you one step ahead of your boss. Topics include negotiating a better deal; discrimination; sexual harassment; dismissal; workplace psychopaths; why legal disputes affect women differently; contracts; step by step problem-solving and more. * Bullying tactics are now "taught" by TV stars like Gordon Ramsay and Donald Trump; where does this leave you and your family members? Don't wait until trouble strikes. Learn lots of useful tips as you develop your workplace survival instincts. * Written in easy to understand language, with numerous case studies and examples. * Won't go out of date, because it's based on long-established international principles. * Don't let your kids loose into the workforce before they have read this book. This is a reference work to keep in your family bookcase for years to come.
